MADE FOR CIRCULAR THINKING

Good Design Never Ends

Designed once. Designed to be used again.

Circularity starts with good design. Built for the full life cycle, our products perform and they endure—so they stay in use longer and reduce impact at every stage.

Smarter design means modular solutions that use fewer materials and last longer. Better inputs—like recycled, bio-based, and carbon-storing materials—help lower carbon. Planning for what's next—with regional programs that reclaim, reuse, or recycle—keeps more flooring in use and out of the waste stream.

Each decision helps keep our products in play and drives carbon emissions down—for you and for us. It's proof that good design truly never ends.
