The image is a composite. On the left, a large vertical panel shows a dark grey carpet tile with a fine, vertical wood-grain texture. To its right, a smaller section displays a geometric pattern of interlocking diamond shapes, each containing a different wood-grain texture. On the far right, an inset photograph shows a modern lounge area with a desk, blue and striped cushions, and a laptop. The floor in this area is covered with the diamond-patterned carpet tiles.
